GOV. MORROW ASKS FOR FEDERAL TROOPS

Tug River District in State Of Guerrilla Warfare Past Four Days

Frankfort, Ky., May 16.—Governor Edwin P. Morrow late tonight sent a telegram to the war department in Washington, requesting that federal troops be sent to the Tug river district which has been in a state of virtual guerrilla warfare for four days.

Governor Morrow's request for troops followed receipt of a message from Governor Morgan, of West Virginia, containing a demand by the sheriff of Mingo county for dispatch of a federal contingent. In his message Governor Morgan recommended that Governor Morrow join with him in a request for troops.

Washington, May 16.—Secretary Weeks would not indicate tonight what attitude he would adopt toward the request of Governor Morrow, of Kentucky, that federal troops be sent into the Tug river district of the Kentucky-West Virginia border, pending receipt of the telegram.

The telegram, the secretary explained, had not been received and he reiterated that all reports from Major Thompson, the war department's observer in the strike area, indicated that conditions there were not sufficiently serious to require the use of federal troops. The department, the secretary added, would continue to be guided largely by the observations of its official observer.

METHODISTS BEGIN EDU- CATIONAL CAMPAIGN

The Group Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, composed of representatives of the churches at Fordsville, Beaver Dam, Dundee, Centertown, Hartford and North Hartford Mission, was held at the Methodist Church here last Thursday afternoon and night. The meeting was held in the interest of the campaign to raise $33,000,000 to be expended in behalf of Christian Education by that denomination. There was a good attendance and a number of timely and helpful addresses were made. Plans were inaugurated for the coming campaign. At the night session Rev. Baxter W. Napier preached a masterly sermon. Bro. Napier was formerly pastor of this charge, but is now located at Louisville. He was warmly welcomed by his many friends.

WOMEN IN RURAL DISTRICTS MUST PAY POLL TAX

Frankfort, Ky., May 14.—Women living in rural districts must pay the $1 poll tax levied on all voters in rural districts by the last legislature, Attorney General Charles I. Dawson held in an opinion made public here today. The question was brought up by Bernard Stone, chairman of the Nelson county board of education, who asked for a ruling on the law. Under the old law only "white male inhabitants over twenty-one years of age were subject to a poll tax. The present law requires "each legal voter" to pay the poll tax provided for and consequently included the newly enfranchised women.

McHENRY CULPRITS PUNISHED

In Quarterly Court Monday Clyde Hines and Lennie Watson, of McHenry, were convicted, after a trial by jury, of breach of the peace and the punishment of each fixed at a fine of $40 and 18 days in jail. They were accused of aiding in the attack on "Teddy" Tate and his restaurant at that place a short time ago.

Clarence Aul, of Fordsville, before the court on a peace warrant, for his alleged ill treatment of his wife, was put under a peace bond of $150.

The examining trial of Homer McNutt, colored, who is in jail charged with assisting in the robbery of J. T. Vinson & Son, will be held today.

CORPORATIONS MUST PAY ON INCREASED VALUE

Supreme Court Decision Puts Millions in U. S. Coffers; Estate Levy Valid

Washington, May 16.—The Government won today in the Supreme Court its contention that increased value of any capital asset must be considered in a corporation's profits when taxes were computed.

The court's decision was given in the appeal of La Belle Iron Works from a ruling of the Treasury that its lands purchased for $190,000 in 1904 must be returned in the 1917 report at $10,000,000 and a profits tax paid on the difference.

The opinion today sustained this ruling.

"The meaning of the act as to invested capital is clear," the court said. "It was to cover actual cost of property, disregarding anything that does not change the form of the investment."

Hundreds of millions of dollars in excess profits taxes were involved in the case which was characterized by a high Government official as "the most important legal suit affecting Federal finances to arise in several decades."

MR. AND MRS. T. H. BEAN AGREEABLY SURPRISED

A number of relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Bean gave them quite an agreeable surprise, Mothers' Day. Mrs. Bean was persuaded to attend Sunday School that morning and then to visit a neighbor on her return. In the meantime a birthday dinner was being prepared and the guests arriving, so that when Mrs. Bean returned she was completely surprised.

WORLD WAR VETERAN BURIED AT FORDSVILLE

Body of John Crowe Returned After Three Years Inter- ment in France

The body of John Crowe, one of Ohio County's sons who gave his life for his country in the great world conflict, arrived at Fordsville, Saturday, and was interred in the cemetery at that place. This young martyr was the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Crowe, of Easton, and at the time of his death was only 20 years of age. He enlisted in the U. S. Army and was sent to France, where he was wounded Sept. 29, 1918. Death occurred the following day. The body was interred near or on the battleground and was only recently exhumed and shipped to Hoboken and thence to Fordsville by way of Louisville.

Ex-service men of three wars, Civil, Spanish-American and World, were in the escort at the funeral. Rev. Edgar Sanders, pastor of Fordsville Methodist church, delivered the sermon. An immense congregation was present.

Among near relatives who survive are his parents, a grandmother, wife, one child, three brothers and one sister.

LEITCHFIELD DEFEATED BY McHENRY TEAM

Before a large and expectant crowd the McHenry Majestic Theater team swamped the Legion team by a score of 14 to 2 here Sunday afternoon. A good game was expected, but due to many errors on the part of the Legionnaires McHenry was enabled to win in a walk. The heavy hitting of H. Monroe and the pitching of Parrott, both of McHenry, took all of the pep out of the locals. The locals played a pretty fair game until the fourth when Monroe's single through first and second passed up right fielder Hughes and Monroe slowed up at third base. After this, errors came thick and fast. Washer started in the box for the Legion team, but gave it up and turned it over to Beeler. Parrott pitched the entire game for McHenry, allowing five hits, while McHenry collected fifteen hits from Washer and Beeler's offerings.—Leitchfield Gazette.

MADDON—CROWE HESS—HOOVER

A double wedding was solemnized by Rev. R. E. Fuqua at his residence, on Clay street, at about the midnight hour, Tuesday, May 10th. The contracting parties were Mr. Geobel C. Crowe to Miss Louise Maddox, and Mr. Karl Hoover to Miss Julia C. Hess.

Mr. Crowe is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Crows, of this city, and is a graduate of Hartford High School. His bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Maddox, of McHenry, and had just graduated from the McHenry High School on the night of her marriage.

Mr. Hoover is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Hoover, of this city, and one of Hartford's most industrious young business men. His bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hess, of McHenry, and is an accomplished young lady.

These are all popular young people and have our very best wishes for a happy and prosperous married life.

PRINCESS OLGA SHOWS NOW IN THE CITY

The Princess Olga shows arrived here, Monday, and presented their first entertainment last night. Although we have not seen their performances the company comes well recommended and the managers seem to be straightforward gentlemen. They inform us that their shows are far above the average for this type of entertainment and are clean, educative and entertaining. Among other attractions, they have a number of wild animals which are drawing a continual stream of sightseers.

FORMER OHIO COUNTESS COMMITTS SELF DESTRUCTION

Madisonville, Ky., May 14.—No motive has been found or known for William Wallace, 36, of Morganfield, a flagman on the internurban, committing suicide in this city about 10 o'clock Thursday morning. Some think the act was committed because of ill health, but friends of Wallace claim he was in perfect health.

Wallace ended his life with a .38-calibre pistol and had made preparations for the deed. He locked both doors of the smoking compartment of the coach and sitting in a seat shot himself twice. The first shot was below the heart on the left side and then he shot himself the second time through the brain on the right side, the bullet entering his head just in front of the ear. The last shot produced instant death. Wallace's shirt was set on fire by the first shot and the flames were extinguished by J. H. Fish, trainmaster of the Henderson division. Baggage master E. O. Trice and Fireman H. L. Nunley of the internurban, when they unlocked the doors of the smoker and found Wallace dead. Wallace is survived by his wife and one child.

The body was shipped to Fountain Head, Tenn., for burial. Mr. Wallace was reared in Fountain Head, Tenn., and entered the railroad service June 26, 1906. The first train that passed over the M. H. & E. R. R. Jan. 3, carried him as a brakeman and he continued to work on this line until Jan. 12, 1920, when he was transferred. While employed on the M. H. & E. he resided at Fordsville, and is known by many Ohio county people. He is related to the Wallaces here.

P. T. A. HOLDS IN- TERESTING MEETING

Hartford Parent-Teacher Association met Thursday afternoon, May 12th. The meeting opened with a vocal duet by Misses Martha Stevenson and Amelia Pirtle.

Mrs. John B. Wilson, president, made a report of the convention of Parent-Teacher Association held in Louisville during K. E. A. week.

Mrs. Sam Keown made a report of an address on health which she heard at the convention.

The president read a letter from the president of the Beda Parent-Teacher Association expressing their thanks and appreciation for the welcome given them on the evening of their entertainment in the Hartford High School auditorium.

Suggestions as to what is the highest thing the Hartford P. T. A. can do next year were made. Several things were suggested but it seemed to be the consensus of opinion that the Association should boost the idea of building an addition to the building to meet the crowded condition which now prevails.

The Association voted to contribute $5.00 to the Near East Relief Fund.

Mrs. C. E. Smith sang "My Old Kentucky Home."

Mrs. I. S. Mason, Ohio County's next School Superintendent, was present and made a splendid talk in which she praised the work of Parent-Teacher Associations and expressed a desire to see more of them organized in the rural schools.

Principal J. F. Bruner praised the spirit of the students of Hartford school and expressed his thanks for the co-operation which he has received from the Association during his stay with them. A rising vote of thanks was extended to him and Mrs. Bruner for their service.

"Boost, not Knock" was the slogan voted for the ensuing year.

After a piano duet by Mrs. Schroeter and Mrs. Bruner, the meeting adjourned to meet Thursday afternoon, June 12th.

REICHSTAG ACCEPTS ALLIED ULTIMATUM

Coalition Cabinet Decides This Only Means of Averting Ruhr Occupation

Berlin, May 16.—Germany has accepted the allied ultimatum. The Reichstag tonight by a vote of 221 to 175 yielded to the final demands of the allied powers, and in so doing agreed to fulfill the terms of the treaty of Versailles "to the capacity" of the nation to do so.

Dr. Wirth, the Centrist leader, finally succeeded in forming a coalition cabinet, composed of Centrists, Majority Socialists and Democrats, which, confronted by grave necessity, speedily decided that acceptance of the ultimatum was the only course.

In making this announcement to the Reichstag the new chancellor asked for an immediate decision by that body, and in the voting which followed, the government was sustained.

The allied ultimatum required a definite reply, based on "yes" or "no." No conditional reply would be entertained, and the ultimatum was formulated to expire on the night of May 12.

HARTFORD HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT SUCCESSFUL

The annual commencement exercises of Hartford High School began last Friday night with a Dramatic Contest by the Freshmen girls. Misses Lockett Ford, Corinne Ward, Anabel King Martine Sproul, Elyth Tinsley and Kathryn Williams were contestants. All did exceedingly well and the race was very close. Miss Williams was awarded the medal offered by Dr. J. B. Tappan. The judges were Mesdames J. S. Glenn and L. C. Barrett and Mr. A. D. Kirk.

The Baccalaureate Sermon was delivered at the Methodist church Sunday morning by Rev. Bruce Lyle, pastor of Elm Street Methodist church, Nashville, Tenn. This was one of the most forceful sermons heard here in recent years.

The music for the occasion was very appropriate and well rendered. Monday night, the pupils of the grades presented an operetta. This was a splendid number and shows that Hartford has plenty of budding talent in this line.

The program for Tuesday night was rendered by the Seniors, all the members of the class participating, and consisted of the usual "Class Day" numbers. The Class of 1921 acquitted itself with honor and the patrons and friends of the school were given a vivid object lesson of the results of the work which is being done by Hartford High School.

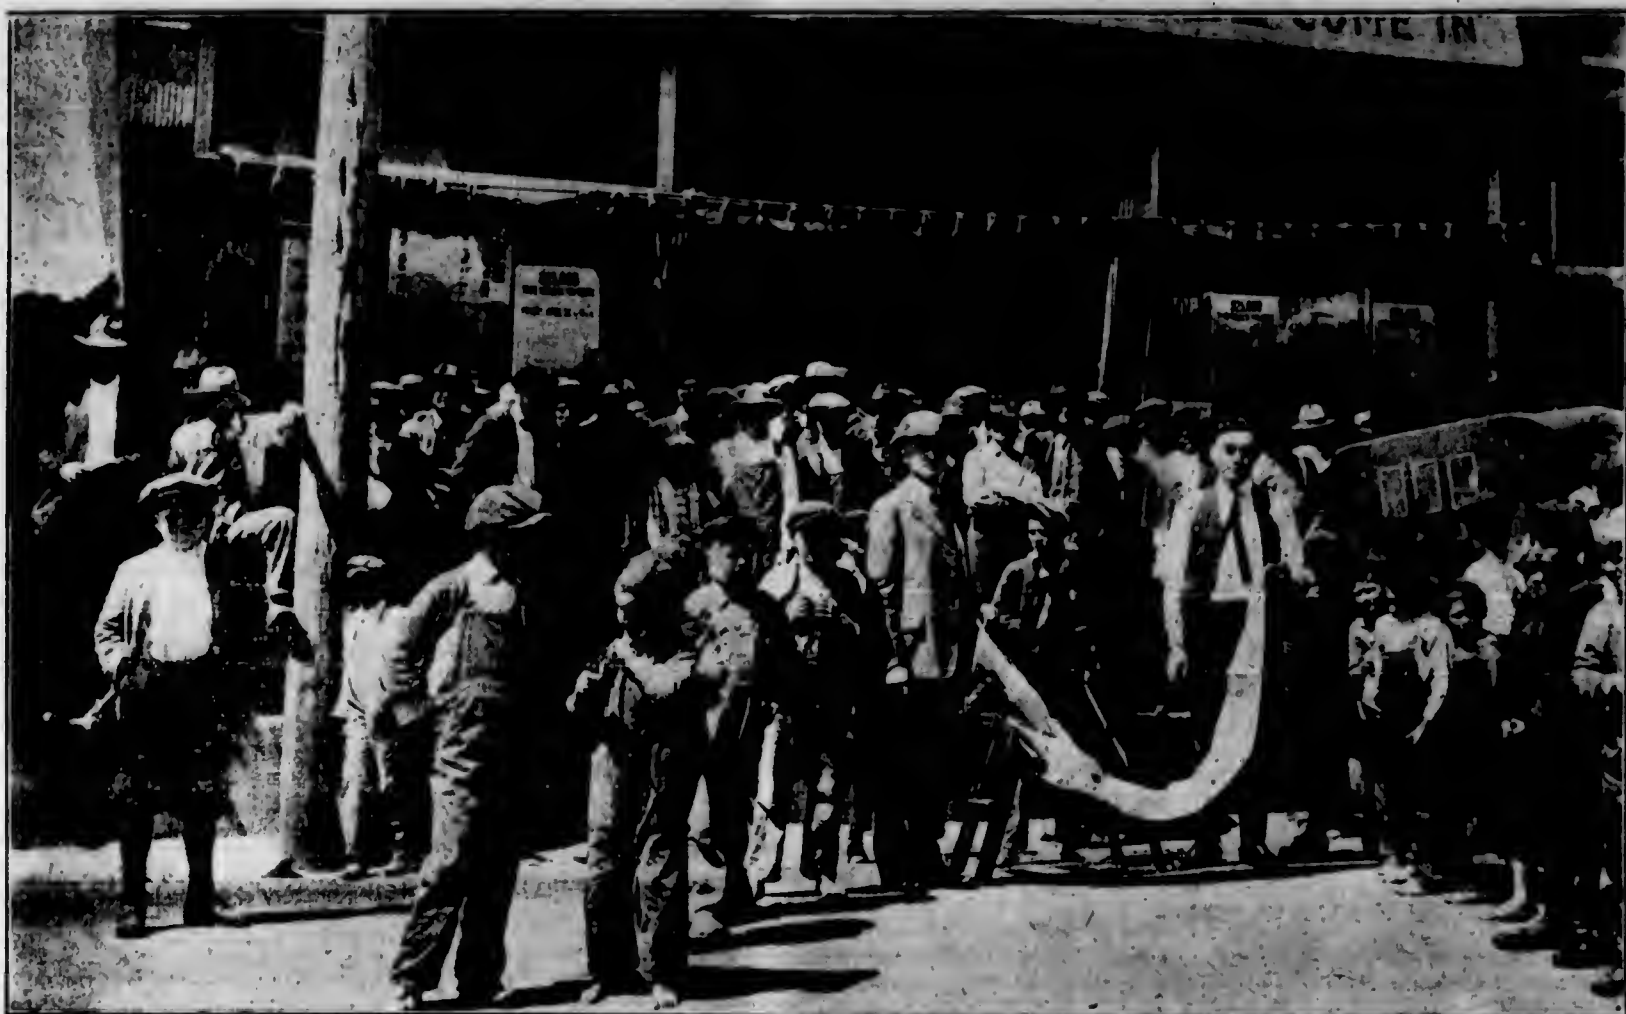

HOUSEBREAKING SUS- PECTS ROUNDED UP

Shortly after our press hour last Tuesday Marshal Walter Burden, of Fordsville, brought to Hartford and placed in the County Jail one Charley Smith, alias Charley Nason, alias Harry Smith, who is accused of breaking into the L. H. & St. L. depot at Fordsville. He was picked up by a railroad detective near McQuady and given an examining trial before Esquire Ben Rice, at Fordsville. He made a confession of guilt and was held over to the grand jury. He is also suspected of having been implicated in the recent robbery of the store of J. T. Vinson & Son, at Beaver Dam. As some parcel post packages were tampered with by the intruder in the Fordsville depot, Mr. W. C. Lyle, a Post-office inspector, of Evansville, was sent here Tuesday to investigate. He questioned the prisoner, but got very little satisfaction out of him. The culprit now says his name is Henry Allen Pendergrast and that he is 19 years old. He claims to have been reared in an orphan's home at Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. U. S. Carsou, who has been under treatment by local and Owensboro physicians for a painful affection of her right eye, reports most gratifying improvement and the doctors assure her that her eye will soon be back to normal. The original trouble was caused by getting whitewash in the eye.

WHAT THE RED CROSS IS DOING FOR DISABLED SERVICE MEN

Responsibility Of The Community

The Red Cross is both a national and a local organization. For the service which the Chapters render, local communities are responsible. They must raise the funds, hire the workers, see that their service is up to standard. The national office formulates the standards and works out the procedure and constantly furnishes advice and guidance, but it cannot and should not interpose these on an unwilling community. If the people of a locality are indifferent to the welfare of the soldiers and are unwilling to help the national organization in its service in hospitals and Government offices; if it is too much trouble for the local people to hunt up the men and their families and to help them work out their problems, the men of that community must go unserved.

It should be remembered in this connection that, neither the Red Cross nor any other organization can rise higher than its source. In the community which is indifferent to the health, education and morals of its people, the appeal of the soldier, like all the rest, goes unheard.

Future Of The Work

There has recently been heard a demand from some quarters for a formula which would mark very definitely, in time or in character of service, the responsibility of the Red Cross Chapter to the disabled man. So far the National Organization has refused to consider the question on any such abstract basis. It has said that the obligations of each Chapter depend on the size of its disabled soldier problem, and on the presence of other agencies having the means and being willing to take over the responsibility or some part of it. As a matter of fact, there are comparatively few such agencies even in places where there is wealth and social conscience, which could assume such an obligation. The Red Cross will, therefore, stand by, not on a formula, but on a broad basis of human service and genuine interest in these men.—Red Cross Bulletin.

Why Doesn't Government Do It

One of the questions frequently asked is why the Government does not do what the Red Cross is doing? The Government is compelled to confine itself to a standardized service, treating all men more or less alike. The Red Cross can go into all the ramifications of the individual case and help the man overcome his peculiar handicaps and obstacles. The Government must stick to the essentials of the job. It has a gigantic and difficult task to accomplish the obvious work, common to the handling of every case of a disabled man. It cannot take infinite pains with every case. What it does for one, it must be prepared to do for all who are eligible, whether they need it or not.

Now, the Red Cross, by its very nature, is under no such legal obligation. It can adjust its service to the needs of each individual. Of course, its financial resources will not permit it any extravagance or reckless lavishing of luxuries on anyone, but it can stand by a man and see him through in a very genuine and a very real way. Better than that, it can take time to go over all the circumstances with him and to advise him disinterestedly and informally. Through its system of Chapters and its representatives located at all the strategic points along the way, the Red Cross is a combination claim agent, friend, adviser, teacher, and general aidus Achates of the disabled man. Such a role would be very difficult, if not impossible, for the Government.

Determined To Do The Job Right

In carrying out its obligations the Red Cross faces not only the problem of local indifference in some places, as described above, but it must plan to administer its resources so that its service will be uninterrupted, continuous and dependable. That means care and thought and a weighing and choice of possibilities in the light of its assets and its commitments. No social agency ever undertook such a job before. The Red Cross is determined that there shall be no disappointing ending to this one.

Another difficult problem which constantly confronts the Red Cross has to do with personnel. There are numberless people who long to do something for the soldiers. But there are comparatively few who are willing, or are trained, to thread their way carefully and surely through the patient processes of study necessary for any real service to the men. It is often a complicated and difficult piece of work and one that calls for all the self-discipline, the knowledge, ability and ingenuity of the trained worker. If amateurs could always do it, the men themselves would solve their own problems.

Don't blame the poor editor,
should this week's issue not measure up to our usual standard.
Blame the Mayor and "Pete" for making it possible for us to look out the back window and see a "princess ogling." This goo-goo-eye stuff always did get our angora.

If the classic drama, entitled "Old Sol. in the Courtroom," was so innocuous or its criticism so "silly," why the frantic rush to arms on the part of all the Republican cohorts, horse, foot and dragoons—and popguns? As the old adage has it, "It is the hit dog that howls."
For an "amateur" the "editor with an Englishman's sense of humor" sure did stir up the local G. O. P. menagerie. By the way, it might be well for the philosophical headstringer to learn how to spell. When our next solar plexus blow finds its mark, the word "amateur" hurled at us may come in handy again.
But, with apologies to Mr. Weller,
the elder, "Spell it with an 'a,' Johnnie, spell it with an 'a.'"

The shaking of the political plum tree has begun and the faithful will soon be rewarded. After barely two months in the presidential chair Mr. Harding has put the first, second and third class postoffices back into politics. By executive order he has rescinded the order made by President Wilson in 1917 by which the postal service was placed under civil service rules and appointments made on the basis of merit. More than 13,000 postmas-terships will again become the spoils of victory and the rush of the party workers to receive their reward at the official pie counter is beginning. Under the new regulation made by Mr. Harding when a vacancy occurs if "not filled by nomination of some person within the competitive classified civil service, who has the required qualifications," the Postmaster General, after competitive examination, shall submit to the President "the name of one of the highest three qualified eligibles for appointment." When carefully analyzed this verbiage means that as fast as the terms of the present incumbents expire they will be filled by the executive, upon a strictly partisan basis. The camouflage of selection from the three graded highest in the examination deceives no one. The discouraging truth, discouraging, at least, to all sincere seekers after efficiency in the public service,—is that the Administration has squarely turned its back upon the merit system; after it has for four years been tested fairly and successfully.

Despite the mouthings of treason-able parlor Bolsheviks and weak-kneed preachers, who are trying to get a little cheap notoriety by crying out for a "liberal" observance of Sunday; despite the far-reaching propaganda of the business interests back of Sunday exploitation and the widespread effort to nullify
the will of the people as to prohibition, the fact remains and will always so continue, that America is above all a Christian nation. And this fact should not be forgotten by those who aspire to serve the people in the various official capac-

ties. As no man can be a true citizen without God or the fear of Him in his heart, even more is a recognition of the divine Fatherhood necessary in one who seeks to direct the destinies of the nation. Not for a moment do we advocate a narrow, bigoted religious fanaticism not a psalm-singing puritanism, but a decent regard for and recognition of the Source of all justice and righteousness. The subordinate officers of our nation and commonwealth are equally bound by this obligation of reverence. The President, the Governor, the Clerk, the Judge, all should be God-fearing, God-revering and God-serving men, in deed, if not by profession. Any aspirant for office in the gift of the people who makes a mockery of the Christian religion or desecrates the names which are forever sacred to Christianity, is not worthy of such a trust. And the voters, when they have learned such a man's true colors, will remember to forget him at the polls.

LOOKING BACKWARD

From the Herald Files
Forty-six Years Ago
(May 19, 1875)

L. J. (Dandy) Lyon, has moved into his new store opposite the Hartford House.

The Republican State Convention
last week put Dr. W. J. Berry, of this place, on their ticket for State Treasurer.

Mr. Larkin Nall and wife, formerly residents of this place, but now living in Lincoln, Ill., are visiting relatives and friends here.

The last few days have been beautiful and bright, causing our charming ladies and gallant young men to begin their social strolls.
Last Sunday was a fine day for the business, judging from the number we saw in the grove opposite the water mill.

Thirty Years Ago

(May 20, 1891)

Miss Ada Patton is a guest of the Misses Woerner.

Miss Lizzie Moore is visiting relatives and friends near Sulphur Springs.

Mesdames, Nancy Bennett and Charlotte Tichenor, of the Point
Pleasant neighborhood, are quite ill.
Newton Balze's young horse ran away a few days ago, but didn't do much damage.—Select Letter.

Twenty Years Ago

(May 15, 1901)

Mrs. Ed Johnson is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Ann Bennett this week.

Mr. H. P. Taylor returned Sunday from New Mexico where he had been on legal business for the Illinois Central R. R.

Mrs. Harber B. Taylor, of near Beaver Dam, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. S. T. Stevens.

We note with pleasure the promotion of Mr. L. M. Render, a Hartford boy, to the secretaryship of the Louisville Trust Co.

Ten Years Ago

(May 17, 1911)

Miss Gertrude Wright entertained
a number of her friends last Wednesday night. Miss Wright distinguished herself as an excellent entertainer.

Rev. J. W. Bruner, pastor of the Hartford Baptist church, has been unanimously recalled for another year.

Rev. A. N. Couch, of Owensboro, preached the Baccalaureate Sermon
the first number of the Hartford College Commencement program, at the Baptist Church Sunday.

Messrs. John T. Moore, R. E. Lee
Simmerman, W. S. Tinsley, E. G.
Barrass, Dr. J. R. Pirtle, Capt. A.
D. White, Hartford, and Ed Ashby, Centertown, are spending this week fishing and hunting at what is known as Grassy, near the locks.

HARTFORD VS. FORDSVILLE

The Hartford base ball team journeyed to Fordsville Sunday and defeated their hosts to the tune of 8 to 5. Bozarth and Turner composed the local battery. Fordsville used three pitchers, but could not stave off defeat. The attendance was good and the fans were pleased with the exhibition and the Hartford boys were well pleased with their reception. The locals are playing winning ball, having lost only one game this season.

ASSESSMENT THIS YEAR ON
100 PER CENT VALUATION

Frankfort, Ky., May 16.—Tax assessments in Kentucky this year will be based upon 100 per cent. of the face value of property, Rainey T. Wells, member of the state tax commission announced at the annual meeting of the county tax commissioners. The assessment this year was based upon 90 per cent. of the fair cash valuation.

He advised the commissioners that if the people of Kentucky want lower taxes they must get a lower county rate than a lower state rate. As an example he cited Franklin county, where he said the state taxes were $54,849.87 and the county taxes $59,836.37 in 1917 and in 1921 $77,577.92 to the state and $24,372.38 for the county.

Since 1917, he said, the total taxes paid on land and town lots had decreased 41 63-100 per cent. and on livestock 130 63-100 per cent.; intangible property 173 95-100 per cent., and intangible personal property 22 1-100 per cent.

LABOR SITUATION IS NOW DECIDEDLY EASIER

Greater Supply and Less Demand in Comparison With Past Three Years

The farm-labor situation in the United States is decidedly easier than it has been in the past three years. This fact is shown by figures that follow, being averages of estimates of normal supply and demand made by reporters to the Bureau of Crop Estimates, United States Department of Agriculture, April 1, each year.

Reports from Nearly Every State
Comments made by agricultural statisticians for the various States on the labor situation are as follows:

Alabama: Supply more plentiful and less expensive.

Arizona: There is an abundance of farm labor at greatly reduced wages.

Arkansas: Supply seems to exceed the demand over the entire State. In some localities white farm labor is still bringing $1.50 per day. At many points colored labor can be had at from 75 cents to $1 per day.

California: Supply appears to be sufficient; wages reduced.

Delaware: Supply more plentiful and wages a little reduced compared with last year.

Florida: Supply plentiful and wages greatly reduced.

Georgia: Supply abundant, but no money with which to hire it. Colored labor is leaving, as employment can not be found.

Idaho: There is no shortage and wages are going to be reasonable.

Illinois: Supply abundant, but still high priced, and farmers are getting along with as little hired help as possible.

Mississippi: Supply generally plentiful and more efficient than for several years.

Farmers Will Do Their Own Work
Montana: Demand very light, with surplus supply. Farmers financially unable to hire, and will do their own work as far as possible, planting accordingly. Wages of farm labor are $45 to $55 per month, compared with $75 to $85 last year. Sheep herders wages are $50, compared to $85 to $95 last season.

Nebraska: Supply plentiful, at pre-war wages or slightly above, or 25 to 50 per cent less than last year.

New England: Farm labor more plentiful; wages reduced about 30 per cent from last year.

New Mexico: Supply is plentiful, but higher wages are demanded than the farmers can afford to pay.

North Dakota: Supply exceeds demand; wages noticeably reduced from a year ago.

Ohio: Supply generally equal to demand, though some complaint is still heard of wages asked.

Oregon: Supply appears to be plentiful, with wages greatly reduced as compared with last year. Need for hired farm labor reported much below normal.

South Carolina: Supply normal.

South Dakota: Supply more plentiful than a year ago. Farmers not employing as much labor as usual.

Tennessee: Supply plentiful in most localities, but wages remain higher than the farmers feel able to pay.

Texas: Labor sufficient for all requirements of cotton crop.

Virginia: Supply ample for demand, which appears to be less than usual.

Washington: Farm bureaus in many counties are arranging the wage scale for the coming season.

Wisconsin: Wages for single men are approximately $50 per month, as compared with $80 a year ago.

STRONG LEADERS NEEDED

"Ten years are required to educate a 'crop of children,' but it will be twenty years before the full effect of the Christian education movement, backed by the Protestant denominations of America, for which vast sums of money have been and are being collected, will be experienced," said Mrs. J. H. McCoy, of Nashville, Tenn., widow of the late Bishop J. H. McCoy, in a recent address in behalf of the Christian Education movement of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

Mrs. McCoy said in part: "We need strong leaders in all walks of our national life, inspired by Christian education. The world never had such an ignorant type of persons now presenting themselves for leaders of the people. Think what it would mean to have leaders in public conducting the affairs of government according to Christian principles. Only Christian education as planned by the churches can remedy the evils of the times. We need to go at it systematically for it takes ten years to educate a crop of children. If the church schools put forth their utmost endeavors and are supported in full measure as they should be by all the members of all the churches we can experience the full effect in twenty years from now."

The Christian education movement of the Southern Methodist church maintains 91 institutions of learning. It proposed to make an expenditure of $33,000,000 in order to bring these schools and colleges to a point of efficiency where they will adequately serve their constituency. Leaders here state more than 4,000 young men and women were turned away from Methodist schools last year.

KILLINGS BY MEN PARDONED BY MORROW

Jackson, Ky., May 10.—Donor Neace, recently acquitted of the killing of Beecher Noble, was shot and killed late tonight on Lost Creek by Grover Fugate, who was pardoned a few weeks ago by Governor Morrow. Fugate killed Green Noble about two years ago and was sent to the penitentiary for 15 years.

Bad blood between the two men is believed to have caused the shooting. Fugate left immediately after the murder.

Thus, the third man recently pardoned from Breathitt county to be implicated in recent killings. Kelly Robinson, pardoned some few months ago, was killed at Hazard early this year. Breck Little, who was pardoned last year, was killed in January near his home in this county.

PARENTS OF YOUTH KILLED BY TRAIN GIVEN $6,000

Harrodsburg, Ky., May 13.—The Southern Railway Company has settled with Walter Marimon for the death of his young son, William Marimon, who was killed in February at the depot crossing while in an auto with his uncle. The railroad paid $6,000 in settlement without going to trial and also settles for the Ford car which was wrecked at the time the boy was killed.

In Circuit Court Wade Darland was given five years in the penitentiary for passing a forged check at the Mercer National Bank on Sanders & Company, stock traders. Darland had cashed checks amounting to about $1,500 before he was arrested.

MAN, ASLEEP, FALLS 8 FLOORS; MAY LIVE

New York, May 11.—Stephen Barker, a lawyer living in Short Hills, N. J., early today walked in his sleep out of a thirteenth story window in his brother's apartment and fell eight stories to the roof of an adjacent building. Physicians said he had a fair chance for recovery, although his skull was fractured and his legs were broken.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN BURNED WHEN HIS TROUSERS CATCH FIRE AT LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles, May 13.—Charlie Chaplin was painfully, but not seriously burned at his motion picture studio here when he fell over an acetylene blow torch which was part of the "set" in which he was working.

His trousers caught fire and he was burned from ankles to waist.

COWBOY CAPTURES EAGLE WITH LARIAT

Sioux City, Iowa, May 14.—Thomas Hale, a cowboy on a ranch near Gregory, S. D., captured a live eagle with a lariat. Hale saw the eagle swoop down on a calf. Waiting until the bird had eaten its fill he rode toward it, roped it and carried the captive home.

FIRE KILLS FOUR BROTHERS

Cambridge, Mass., May 14.—Four brothers burned to death in a fire early Tuesday which partly destroyed their home. Starting near the front entrance of the house, the flames spread rapidly and blocked the only exit from attic rooms occupied by the youths. The dead: Ledger, 21 years old; Ernest, 19; Warren, 14, and Lester Trembley, 13, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Justin Trembley.

U. S. SENATE PUTS ITS O. K. ON THE TARIFF

Emergency Measure Carrying Anti-Dumping Bill Is Passed 63 to 28

Washington, May 11.—The Senate late today passed the Emergency Tariff and Anti-Dumping Bill, retaining all amendments recommended by the Finance Committee, but rejecting those individually proposed. The vote was 63 to 28.

Seven Democrats, Senators Edwin S. Broussard, Louisiana; A. A. Jones, New Mexico; John S. Kendrick, Wyoming; Henry L. Myers, Montana; Key Pittman, Nevada; Joseph E. Ransdell, Louisiana, and Morris Sheppard, Texas, voted with the Republicans in passing the bill. Another Democrat, Henry F. Ashurst, Arizona, who was absent, was announced as a supporter. Only one Republican, Senator George H. Moses, New Hampshire, voted against the bill.

Differs From Earlier Measure

As passed by the Senate the measure differs radically from the form in which it was passed by the House early in the extra session, and now goes to conference. Only the tariff features of the bill were kept intact, the anti-dumping and currency revaluation sections being entirely rewritten and the provision added for continuation of the wartime restrictions on imports of dyestuffs.

Action by the Senate came at the end of five hours of driving attack by Democratic leaders. The latter, however, were not alone, in their attempts to amend the measure, for several Republicans made efforts to broaden its scope only to see their amendments meet the same fate as those offered from the minority side of the chamber. All were swept aside by practically the same vote.

Dye Monopoly Feared

Late in the day Democrats concentrated on the committee addition to the bill providing for continued Federal control of dye importations. Senators charged frequently that the amendment, which was submitted to the committee by Senator P. C. Knox, Republican, Pennsylvania, would create a monopolistic control of the dye industry and turn over the consumers to "the wishes and will of one man." A rollcall left it as a part of the bill by the vote of 61 to 25.

Senator William H. King, Democrat, Utah, was not content, however, and made another effort to strike out the dye provision just prior to the vote on passage. That failed also.

The Utah Senator, after passage of the measure, announced he would offer a resolution in the Senate soon to investigate the monopoly which he said existed and had now been permanently entrenched by the Senate's action.
